The daughter of Mr. Morosini has become tired of living in a room over a saloon, and yesterday she in New York. Schelling's stepfather says that Viotoria's strength failed her yesterday morning; that she fainted, and has since been quite ill. The exciting events through which she has passed, the sight of the jeering mob, the dying mother and the heart-broken father had wrought upon her nerves until she was in a semi-hysterical condition. Her pride gave way, and she declared that she will go back to Yorkers and remain by the bed of her sick mother, no matter at what cost to herself. She declared that she would stay within reach of her mother until the latter is well. Then she and her husband would go away to some place where they were not known.

THE OHIO MINE TROUBLES.—Three companies of troops are now held at Hocking valley, Ohio, and all has been quiet since their arrival, with the exception of a few personal encounters and some trouble in ejecting strikers from houses of the operators. The troops are held to prevent another general attack on the guarded foreign labor that is being put in the mines rapidly.

Boston, September 17.—Rev. T. F. Smith, author of the national hymn, "America," and his wife celebrated their golden wedding at their residence in Newton Center last evening. About 400 respondes to invitations, and many who could not be present sent letters or more subtantial remembrances.

INBUMAN TREATMENT OF A CRAZY WOMAN.—Angeline Hoyt, the owner of considerable property, was found in Cato, N. Y., yesterday confined in a fithy pen in a nude condition. She is sixty years old and has been a lunatic since her birth. The authorities will take charge of the case, as it is thought was kept in this condition by her relatives.
